

The Great Plastic Debate

Probing Questions

Challenging

Should businesses pay a plastic tax?

Should governments be held accountable for plastic in the oceans?

Should the Deposit Return Scheme be more widely used?

Is there ever a place for plastic in today's society?

More Challenging

If plastics break down into smaller pieces in the ocean, what's the problem?

Do you want a world without plastic?

Isn't plastics in the oceans a minor problem compared to climate change?

Surely change is up to big businesses, what difference can one person make?
